

Drivers Education Scholarships Available

Do you know a teen in need of Drivers Education?

Trauma centers in the Denver-Metro area are committed to keeping young drivers safe on the road.

Farmers Insurance has granted funding to the Good Samaritan Hospital Foundation to offer scholarships for teens in the community who need driver's education training.

A limited number of scholarships up to $450 are available and will be awarded towards driver's education programs that include 30 hours of in-person learning and 6 hours of behind the wheel training with an instructor.

Continental
Division

Good Samaritan
Foundation

Applications will be accepted through March 1 2025 OR as long as funds are available.

Scholarship applications will be reviewed within 60 days of submission. The number of scholarships is limited, and the process is competitive.

Website link to application materials:

<https://intermountainhealthcare.org/foundation/good-samaritan-foundation/about-us/teen-driving-scholarship>

For more information, visit our scholarship website or contact grace.greathouse@imail.org with questions.